

S ervice Scholar Program

Academic Year 2010-2011

Application

The Service Scholar Program is designed to recognize students with an outstanding record of service and leadership and to promote civic responsibility as an integral part of a liberal arts education at Florida State University. Admission to the Program is reserved for freshmen who have demonstrated excellence in service and leadership in planning and promoting community involvement among their peers. Applicants must evidence an interest in strengthening their skills and deepening their attitudes toward creating change in their communities. Both quantity and quality of applicant's service and leadership experiences will be considered.

At Florida State University, Service Scholars will complete a minimum of 75 service hours per semester, participate in individual and group service projects, attend regular meetings, engage in learning, and promote community participation among their peers (please visit <http://thecenter.fsu.edu> and click on the Service Scholars heading for more information). The Program includes an annual $2,400 scholarship, which is automatically renewed each year, for four years, provided requirements are met.

Service Scholars will be affiliated with The Center for Leadership & Civic Education and will participate in activities and events of The Center. It is expected that Service Scholars will emerge as effective leaders and exemplary citizens.

The Service Scholar Program seeks diversity among its participants in relation to background, interest and experience. Acceptance into the Service Scholar Program is competitive; only freshmen with a distinguished record of community involvement and a strong desire to continue to learn through service are encouraged to apply.

Complete the application and mail or fax to The Center for Leadership & Civic Education, Florida State University, 100 South Woodward Ave., PO Box 3064161, Tallahassee, FL 32306-4161. The completed application must be postmarked by January 15, 2010. Awards will be announced by February 23.

Part 1: Essay Questions

Each response should be typed on a separate sheet of paper with your name printed in the top right-hand corner of each page. Please note the word limits of each essay.

- 1 List at least five of the most significant service activities in which you have participated. Each listed activity should include the following:
 - Role
 - Responsibility
 - Years of involvement
 - Approximate hours committed
 - Highlights of your accomplishmentsYour response should reflect community service beyond the normal requirements for high school graduation or Florida Bright Futures scholarships, both in quantity and depth of service. Activities that exhibit initiative and leadership will be given greater consideration. Please limit response to 1 page.
- 2 The Service Scholar Program is committed to developing exemplary citizens. Using this frame, what is your personal vision for change in your community? How will your collegiate experience inside and outside of the classroom contribute to your growth as a citizen? Please limit response to 350 words.
- 3 The Service Scholar Program seeks diversity in background and experience. Please describe how your background and experience will contribute to the diversity of perspectives sought in the Service Scholar Program. Please limit response to 250 words.
- 4 List all of your high school and community memberships, involvements, and special recognitions. You may include significant community activities beyond those listed in number 1.
- 5 Recall your most meaningful civic engagement experience (most likely included in your response to essay question #1). How did you identify the community need? How did you work with others to address the need? How did this experience change you? Please limit response to 350 words.

Part 2: Letters of Recommendation

Include two typewritten letters of recommendation, on official letterhead, that focus on your qualifications for the Service Scholar Program. Letters should come from a community agency supervisor, teacher, or school administrator, and should speak to your abilities and accomplishments in service.
