Animals

Animal Aid Society

Tallahassee has the benefit of a successful spay and neuter center for cats and dogs. The center provides low-cost pet health care services which include spaying, neutering, vaccinations, and general medical treatment. Considerable time is spent by the staff working with and educating pet owners on a variety of basic pet health care procedures, behavioral problems, and pet loss.

Goose Creek Wildlife Sanctuary, Inc.

Goose Creek Wildlife Sanctuary, Inc. was formed in 1988 by a small group of grassroots environmentalist and wildlife advocates. Our primary mission is to improve the quality of life for sick, displaced and injured native wildlife. We achieve this mission by maintaining a network of volunteers who provide care to the animals, assist in fundraising activities and administrative support, and provide educational programs to the community.
