MONEY, POLITICS AND THE IRS:

WHAT'S THE FUTURE OF YOUR CHARITABLE GIVING?

On Wednesday, April 15 from 6:30pm - 8:00pm at the Augustus B. Turnbull III, Florida State Conference Center, Public Citizen versus The Heritage Foundation will debate "Money, Politics" and the IRS: What's the Future of Your Charitable Giving?" Controversy abounds over the use of so-called "dark money" by certain nonprofits that under IRS Code can currently engage in lobbying and political activity, but do not have to disclose their donors. However, many have labeled nonprofit giving as Americans' right to free speech, citing the importance of donors engaging privately with organizations that multiply their voices in the "public square." Adding to the dispute, after facing a flood of newly-proposed nonprofit organizations filing to gain 501(c)(4) status under IRS Code, the IRS used conservative terms such as "tea party" and "patriot" to flag applicants for extra scrutiny. These revelations and more have heightened the public deliberation over this line in the sand: How should the government regulate nonprofits? You are invited to join The James Madison Institute as they host Public Citizen and The Heritage Foundation in a debate over the future of your charitable giving. Please RSVP. For more information, visit jamesmadison.org.

From April 24 to April 26, 2015 the North Florida Fair Grounds will be the host to the North Florida Homeless Veterans Stand Down. In times of war, a stand down has exhausted combat units requiring time to rest and recover, be removed from the battlefields to a place of security and safety. This Stand Down refers to a grassroots, community-based intervention program designed to help the estimated 400-500 homeless Veterans in North Florida. During the 3 day/2 night event, the North Florida Fairgrounds in Tallahassee, FL will take on a military atmosphere as tents and cots are set up for the Veterans who are experiencing homelessness in the Tallahassee area. They will live and sleep on the property throughout the weekend. Veterans who do not have permanent housing will have free access to housing assistance, showers, food, clothing, medical services, legal services, mental health services, and job counseling. Healthy Foods Florida is providing volunteer and internship opportunities in the following areas: grassroots and grassroots legislative advocacy, and public policy campaigning (earned media, phone banking, letter writing, op-eds, and event planning). These opportunities are located in the Tallahassee and surrounding Big Bend area for the 2015 spring and summer semesters.
