TCC'S MLK DAY OF SERVICE

The Tallahassee Community College Department of Campus and Civic Engagement will be hosting TCC's third annual MLK Day of Service event on Jan. 18. In order to participate, please register at www.surveymonkey.com/r/TCCserves. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "Life's most persistent and urgent questions is: 'What are you doing for others?'" Each year, Americans across the country answer that question by coming together on the King Holiday to serve their neighbors and communities. It calls for Americans from all walks of life to work together to provide solutions to the country's most pressing national problems. For more information, contact Ryan Rogers at rogersr@tcc.fl.edu or (850) 201-6146.

DR. JELANI COBB HEADLINES MLK WEEK

The 28th Annual MLK Week will begin Monday, Jan. 11 and run through Tuesday, Jan. 19. The weeklong celebration will include activities and events inspired by the theme “Know [His]tory, Live Our Story, Be the Legacy.” Headlining the week is “An Evening with Jelani Cobb” at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 19 in Ruby Diamond Auditorium. Dr. Jelani Cobb is a staff writer at The New Yorker, where he focuses on the subjects of race, the police and injustice. Dr. Cobb is also an associate professor of history at the University of Connecticut and director of the Africana Studies Institute. For more information on MLK Week events, please visit http://sga.fsu.edu/mlk_week/calendar.shtml.

MLK BLOCK PARTY @ COMMONS COURTYARD

Come to #FSUCommons to celebrate Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy and learn about programs and services offered by the Division of Student Affairs. Play Civil Rights-themed party games, sign an interactive birthday card, and grab a cupcake and hot cocoa on what would have been his 87th birthday! Then join us on the Conversation Couch to talk about the meaning of Dr. King’s life and work.

APPLY TO BE A BIG EVENT OUTREACH AMBASSADOR

The Big Event is excited to release a great leadership opportunity to join our team as an Outreach Ambassador! In this role you will work directly with community partners to secure sites for them to volunteer with. They are looking for people to commit to at least 2-3 hours a week working in this position and 10 hours a week for the two weeks leading up to the day of the event. You must be able to make the day of the event, April 2. If you are looking to get more involved at FSU, have a passion for giving back to the community and love communicating with others, this opportunity is great for you! Applications can be found on their Facebook page, facebook.com/TheBigEventFSU! Applications are due January 15th at 5pm! For more information, please e-mail thebigevent.outreach@gmail.com!

CHILDREN’S DAY VOLUNTEERS

The Museum of Florida History is preparing for its Thirty-Third Annual Children’s Day on Saturday, Jan. 30 and seeks volunteers. The event will be held from 10:00am until 4:00pm and will provide hands-on activities, games, and special performances for children and their families. Children’s Day also provides an opportunity for volunteers to connect with local organizations and to serve the community. Volunteers work in shifts welcoming visitors, distributing tickets, taking photographs, assisting with crafts, and much more. If you or your organization are interested in this opportunity, please go to the registration page. Register each volunteer by Friday, Jan. 15. If you have any questions, please contact museum educator Lydia Nabors at (850)922-2459 or email Lydia.Nabors@dos.myflorida.com.

SEMINOLE ORGANIC GARDEN WORKDAYS

4:30 pm, Tuesdays & Thursdays @ the garden (between the circus and band practice field) The Seminole Organic garden is a place on campus for students to learn about and grow their own food. Volunteers are encouraged to come to our workdays as we continue to plant trees, shrubs, construct garden beds, perform other garden maintenance activities, and learn about the garden.

CITY OF TALLAHASSEE’S MLK DAY OF SERVICE EVENT AT CASCADES PARK

The City of Tallahassee and the MLK Dare to Dream Association will be hosting a Day of Dialogue on January 18 from 2:00 to 4:00pm in the administration building at Cascades Park. The theme for this year’s Day of Dialogue is “Connecting to Understand, Understanding to Grow.” The program will feature a panel discussion on connecting as a community and committing to be the change we want to see in Tallahassee. This presentation is designed to engage and motivate participants about the power of communication and relationships and to continue the initiatives that were begun in 2015. Student participation in the dialogue is welcome. The panelists include:

- Liz Joyner - The Longest Table concept – How to continue this on a smaller scale in your neighborhood and why this is important.
- Major Audrey Smith - Neighborhood Initiative (Walk and Talk) – How to continue this on a smaller scale in your neighborhood and why this is important.
- Cindy Bigbie - How to build emotionally safe environments in order to Compassionately Communication for Connections.

In addition, they will be hosting a Dare to Dream Festival from 12:15 to 4:00pm that includes music, food and games. Volunteers are needed for setup, parking, breakdown, kids zone and more. To request information or to sign up to volunteer, contact Tremaine R. Hughes at (850) 891-8293 or Tremaine.hughes@talgov.com.

CHILDREN’S WEEK SEEKING VOLUNTEERS

Children’s Week is a grassroots event that is supported by more than 120 different corporate, non-profit, philanthropic, and faith based organization. Children’s Week will be held on January 25 through January 29, 2016 at the State Capitol Courtyard. Your organization can get involved in two ways: (1) Sign up to volunteer for Children’s Week. Extra hands are needed throughout the week to help hang artwork in the Capitol building and help feed children. For more details about opportunities, dates/times and to register, visit their website. (2) Volunteer to host an interactive reading booth in Storybook Village, which takes place on January 26. The organization can choose a children’s book and create an interactive booth using displays, costumes, arts and crafts, or anything else you can imagine! The Early Learning Coalition of the Big Bend Region will provide support to any organization hosting a booth. For more information about the Storybook booth, please visit our website.

CONSERVATION LECTURE SERIES

On Thursday, Jan. 14 at 7:00 pm at the FSU Coastal Marine Laboratory (3618 Coastal Highway 98), Dr. Sandra Brook will present “Submarine Canyons: Pathways to the Abyss.”

Equity and Workforce Development, in conjunction with the Martin Luther King, Jr. Dare to Dream Association, Inc.,
presents a:

BOOK DRIVE

January 7 through January 29, 2016

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

The need is simple: Children need books. Equity and Workforce Development along with the Martin Luther King, Jr. Dare to Dream Association, Inc., is collecting books for Leon County Children and Youth in Transition. Many underserved children do not have them, and without books to read, literacy suffers— and when literacy suffers, education and opportunities decline.

You can help by donating new or gently used children's books (preschool through 8th grade) and dropping them off at Equity and Workforce Development, located on the third floor of City Hall at 300 S. Adams St. Donations will be accepted through January 29.

For more information, please contact Equity and Workforce staff at 891-8290.

GLOBAL PARTNER CERTIFICATE

The Global is a Center for Global Engagement (CGE) professional development initiative designed for FSU faculty, staff, and graduate students who are interested in improving their intercultural communication, knowledge, skills and awareness and becoming more globally competent. This certificate recognizes an individual's commitment to understanding and appreciating cultural diversity at FSU. Participants must complete all four workshops (in order) and three intercultural events offered on campus and/or the Tallahassee community. Session 1: Bridging Cultures I- Introduction to Intercultural Communication: This session will be held on January 22 from 9:30am to 12:00pm in the Globe room 2300. This workshop will provide participants with the fundamentals of effective intercultural communication skills. The workshop helps participants develop an awareness of their own cultural identity and recognize intercultural diversity at FSU. (Also counts toward the HR Customer Service Certificate) Session 2: Bridging Cultures II- Cross-Cultural Encounters (with IES assessment): This session will be held on February 5 from 9:30am to 12:00pm in the Globe room 2300. This session will emphasize real-life cross-cultural situations and engage participants in a variety of simulation activities. Participants will also complete a self-assessment Intercultural Effectiveness Scale (IES) and learn how to develop strategies for more effective cross-cultural engagement. (Pre-requisite: Bridging Cultures I) Session 3: Managing Intercultural Conflict: This session will be held on February 19 from 10:00am to 12:00pm in the Globe room 2300. This workshop introduces participants to various styles of intercultural conflict management and negotiation processes. Participants will learn how to assess their cultural management style in order to be more effective when managing conflicts across cultures. (Pre-requisite: Bridging Cultures I & II) Session 4: Bridging Cultures III-Developing Global Competence & Lessons Learned: This session will be held on February 26 from 10:00am to 12:00pm in the Globe room 2300. This session will address the process of becoming more globally competent through the developing intercultural sensitivity six-stage process. Participants will share their experiences and lessons learned from their ongoing cross-cultural engagement and training. (Pre-requisite: Bridging Cultures I, II and Managing Intercultural Conflict) To register for any of these sessions, please visit: hr.fsu.edu/?page=training/training_home. If you have any questions, contact Aleks Nestic anesic@fsu.edu or (850) 645-4793.

NOMINATE TRAILBLAZING WOMAN FOR OASIS AWARD

Do you know a local woman or girl who has changed history? Do you know a local woman who is making a huge difference for her family or our community? Nominate her for the recognition she deserves! Each year during Women's History Month, The Oasis Center for Women & Girls recognizes local women and girls who have changed the course of history by blazing a trail where few women have been before. There are three award categories: Trailblazer, Girls Can Do Anything! And Unsung Shero.

- Trailblazer Award Nomination Form - Trailblazer honorees are selected in recognition of their accomplishments that changed history by paving the way for women. Often trailblazers were one of the first or few women in their field locally at the time of their trailblazing contribution.
- Girls Can Do Anything! Award Nomination Form - Girls Can Do Anything! honorees are local trailblazing girls (under the age of 18). Like adult Trailblazers, these girls have made a difference in their schools and community by doing something to pave the way for other young girls to follow.
- Unsung Shero Award Nomination Form - This new award will honor the behind the scenes contributions women make that help create a better world for us all. This can be what a woman contributes to her family, work, school or community that is unlikely to be recognized by traditional leadership awards. Honorees will be publicly recognized at the Women's History Month Community Luncheon on Thursday, March 26 from 11:30 to 1:00pm at the Lively Cafe at St. John's Episcopal Church. Each honoree is also featured in an article profiling them in the Tallahassee Democrat throughout the month of March. Nominations are due Friday, January 15. To nominate someone, please click on the corresponding links above and follow the directions to submit the online nomination form. Nomination form and additional information for all award categories are available at www.TheOasisCenter.net.

TALLAHASSEE MARATHON

Volunteers are needed for the 42nd Tallahassee Marathon on Feb. 7, which is run 100% by volunteers. All profits are split evenly between two charities: the Gulf Winds Track Club, which supports running in the Tallahassee community, and FSU Coach Jimbo Fisher's Kidz1stFund, which seeks to raise awareness and funds to support research to fight Fanconi anemia. You can learn more about the marathon, including the course and community partners, online at tallahasseemarathon.com. They need volunteers to help direct runners and keep participants safe from cars. Although they have over 70 police officers helping, volunteers at intersections are a huge help. They will cheer and encourage runners as well as instruct them on upcoming turns and hold cars coming out of or going into neighborhood streets only, not traffic control on main streets. Volunteers can sign up here. Organizers will communicate with volunteers as the race gets closer. For more information, contact Eric Godin at egodin@gmail.com or (610) 291-9345.

ACC INNOVATION COMPETITION

Florida State University is seeking a team of undergraduate innovators to represent the university at the inaugural ACC Innovation Competition for a chance to win $15,000! FSU invites all FSU undergrads with innovative ideas for new inventions or apps to apply at innovation.fsu.edu/events/acc. On April 5 and April 6, 2016, the 15 Universities of the ACC will each send a team to Georgia Tech to pitch innovative ideas for new products to a panel of judges in a televised competition. Only undergrads may enter. For more information about the competition and eligibility, please visit innovation.fsu.edu/events/acc. Early applications stand a better chance of being select, but the deadline is February 1. Questions? Contact Ken Baldauf at kbaldauf@fsu.edu or (850) 645-8649.

VILLAGE VOLUNTEERS

Village Volunteers are a collaborative body that supports sustainable solutions to community challenges in Africa and Asia. The international experience is immersive, meaningful, responsible, and above all, safe. Through the years, Village Volunteers have worked with students, professionals, gap year students and those who want to experience rich cultures and make friends with a global community. For students in particular, they provide placements that help them gain experiences to meet their academic requirements and enhance their career goals. Check out the 2016 Village Volunteers international volunteer program. Fill out an application so they can direct you to the best possible program.

ARTISTS SOUGHT FOR SATURDAY MATINEE OF THE ARTS AT TALLAHASSEE MUSEUM

Co-presented by FSU's Opening Nights and the Tallahassee Museum, the event spans the grounds of the Museum in celebration of the arts on February 13. Artists and organizations should have information available for guests, and an activity, craft, costumed staff, demonstrator, etc., which will engage the public. To request a booth application, email nhartsfield@tallahasseeuseum.org and put "Matinee booth application" in the subject line. Include the organization's name and form of art within the body of the email. Deadline to apply is January 20.

FLORIDA STUDENT LEADERSHIP FORUM ON FAITH AND VALUES

The Florida Student Leadership Forum on Faith and Values will begin Friday, February 26, 2016 and will conclude Sunday, February 28, 2016 at noon. The annual Florida gathering is an offshoot of the National Student Leadership Forum on Faith and Values in Washington, D.C. which is hosted by the Leaders of the United States House and Senate. It is an inclusive gathering of student leaders from all cultural and religious backgrounds, from all fifty states and from over twenty countries around the world to explore the principles of servant leadership, using the life of Jesus of Nazareth as a model. Forum fees are $290 per person and include two nights' lodging (two students per room) and five meals. Full payment is due by February 10th. Confirmation will be mailed to you when we receive your registration. Accommodations are at the Doubletree Hotel in Tallahassee - rooms are already reserved for participants in the forum, and are included in your forum fee. Note: Tallahassee area students who do not wish to stay in the hotel will have a fee of $180 instead of $290. If you have any questions regarding your registration, please email Tim Perrier at floridateam@gmail.com. RSVP as soon as possible. Due to the nature of this event and in anticipation of regrets, more invitations are extended each year than the number of spaces available. For this reason, please register online asap at www.flslf.org.

INTERNSHIPS, SCHOLARSHIPS, & PAID OPPORTUNITIES

ART MUSEUM INTERNSHIP

The Gadsden Arts Center offers internships for undergraduate and graduate students studying art education, art administration, museum studies, studio art, marketing and graphic design, nonprofit management, and related disciplines. BELLE H. BENNETT FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION OPEN

The Belle H. Bennett Fellowship is a leadership development program that trains, inspires, and sustains emerging women leaders committed to social justice. Fellows are empowered to explore the dynamics of social change, spirituality, and activism and are encouraged to discern their vocations within this context. Fellows gain practical experience engaging social justice and anti-oppression work through placements in community-based organizations in Nashville, as well as experience working on personal and group dynamics, conflict management, community building, and self-care. The purpose of the program is to prepare young women to lead social justice movements and organizations with integrity and the capacity to engage oppression with intersectionality. The program also builds capacities necessary for women to articulate deep, personal conviction about their work and integrate self-care for sustainable, life-long leadership. Benefits include: arranged unpaid internship with Nashville nonprofit; part-time paid work with Scarritt Bennett Center; health insurance, housing and utilities; membership in a learning community of fellows; experience with community leaders; training / mentoring / leadership development, and experience with project management. The application for the 2016-2017 Belle H. Bennett Fellowship is available now at the Scarritt Bennett Center website: here. Priority deadline is Feb. 1. Final deadline is March.
