WHAT EXCITES YOU MOST ABOUT THE SUMMER?

The opportunity to sit down with a refugee and learn their story.

WHAT ABOUT THIS SUMMER MAKES YOU NERVOUS?

Culture shock, jet-lag, different social norms, exotic foods, lack of the usual technologies and resources, and the overwhelming feeling of independence—but what could be more exciting?

WHY DID YOU APPLY TO THE MOELLERSHIP PROGRAM?

As a program, it gives students the opportunity to cultivate more than logistics in preparation for an incredible journey.

OF WHICH ACCOMPLISHMENT ARE YOU PROUDEST?

When, against both of my parents' wishes, I decided to audition as the Ghost of Christmas Past for Horizon Middle School's version of A Christmas Carol. It started a long history of doing things for me, at my own time—or I just became a bit rebellious.

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO BE KNOWN FOR?

If there is one person in this world whose life was affected by my generosity, who remembers me for that random act of kindness, then my life was worth living.

WHAT IS ONE THING YOU CAN'T LIVE WITHOUT?

There is a sketch—well, more of an outline—on a plywood canvas a friend of mine created during one of the hardest crossroads of his life. When he left to New York, he gave it to me as a gift under the condition that I could never, for any reason of my free will, give it away.

WHAT IS THE SOUNDTRACK TO YOUR LIFE?

“Everything, Everytime, Everywhere,” Trevor Hall
